

Inmarsat plc Interim Management Statement

London, UK: 8 May 2009. Inmarsat plc (LSE: ISAT), the leading provider of global mobile satellite communications services, is today publishing an Interim Management Statement as required by the UK Listing Authority's Disclosure and Transparency Rules.

Inmarsat Holdings Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary, today reported unaudited consolidated financial results for the three months ended 31 March 2009.

Stratos Global Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary company since 15 April 2009 and prior to that date an entity included within the consolidated financial results of Inmarsat plc, announced financial results for the first quarter ended 31 March 2009 on 7 May 2009.

Copies of the press releases for both companies' results have been submitted via RNS. Copies of the financial reports for both companies can be accessed via the Investor Relations section of our website at www.inmarsat.com.

Inmarsat plc further reported that, other than disclosed in the above-mentioned reports, there have been no material events or transactions that have taken place in the IMS reporting period.

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements in this announcement constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements, or industry results, to be materially different from those projected in the forward-looking statements. These factors include: general economic and business conditions; changes in technology; timing or delay in signing, commencement, implementation and performance of programmes, or the delivery of products or services under them; structural change in the satellite industry; relationships with customers; competition; and ability to attract personnel. You are cautioned not to rely on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this announcement. We undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect any change in our expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances.
